

Report of Textile and Clothing Department

{2013 – 2014}

2013 – 2014

- One day educational trip to Ahmedabad was organized by textiles and clothing department on 20/02/2013. 30 college students and 17 students from P.G. department of Home Science, S.P. University visited two units. At Nirman textiles Pvt. Ltd , students were exposed to various processes of woven fabric manufacture and the finishing treatments imparted to them. At second unit i.e. Staple knit Ltd., students got practical knowledge of knitted fabric manufacturing on circular looms. Students later on visited the process house for dyeing of knits. This study tour was arranged by faculties Ms. Alpana Shah , Mr.Yogesh Vadwala, Ms. Daxa Sharma under guidance of Rekha Emanuel, the principal.

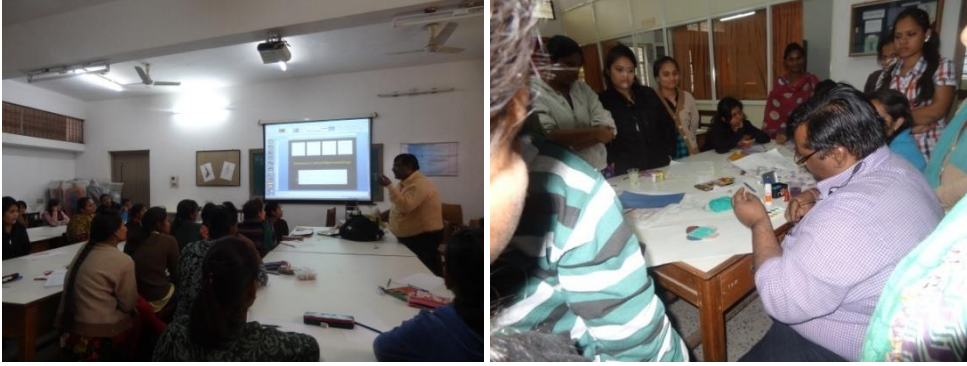

- On 26/2/2013 Farewell party and on 21/9/2013 Welcome Party was organized. 18 T.Y students and 12 S.Y students participated.
- Exhibition was held for two days on 27/9/2013 and 28/9/2013. Hand crafted Chaniya choli were displayed by two T.Y students for all college students under the guidance of faculty members Mrs. Alpana Shah and Mrs. Daxa Sharma .

- Programme of 'Good bye 2013' was celebrated on 31/12/2013 by 26 students of textiles and clothing department.
- On 1/1/2014 Live Demonstration by artisans on Kashidakari of Kashmir & Chikankari of Lucknow. 15 students learnt the techniques, colours used, stitches and contemporary articles made up of these traditional craft. Mrs. Padmaja Puppala, faculty organized this event.
- A parent teacher meet was organized on 11/1/2014 to discuss academic performance of their wards. During meet parents were acquainted with the job scopes and areas of further education. Meeting was attended by 27 parents.

- The textiles and clothing department organized a two day workshop on Design development concept and context dated 17/1/2014 and 18/1/2014. Students From second year, third year textiles and clothing and certificate course in fashion design participated in it. Resource person Mr. Kandarp Raval threw light on various ways of design inception, the process to develop a single motif and finally creating a complete design by different arrangements of the motif.

- An three day Educational trip to Bhuj , Bhujodi , Mandvi , Mundra was arranged from 24th to 26th February 2014. During the visit students were exposed to traditional hand crafted textiles and woven shawls of Gujarat. At Bhujodi students gained information about shawls made up of various animal fibers, the process of shawl manufacture and typicality of Bhuj Shawls. On day second they visited tie and dye units at Bhujwhere they learnt the shibori and other tyeing and dyeing with reactive, acid and natural colors.

