The institute has successfully conducted a National Level Faculty Development Programme for the faculty members of Higher Education Institutes from over the nation. The proposed programme was planned with the aim of incorporating the nitty-gritty of the education process ranging from communication strategies for effective virtual teaching, how a teacher can be competent in the modern times, how to create an immortal impression on the young souls.

The professional experts were invited from parts of the nation and of international stature.

The Objectives of the program were:

- ❖ Upgrading on the blended mode of teaching and learning.
- ❖ To be more technology friendly and its innovative use.
- ❖ Developing the teaching skills that makes a positive impression and enhance their professional image.
- ❖ Increase self-confidence and aptitude to create holistic environment in the classroom.

The inaugural ceremony was planned on 1st March 2021 and Dr. S.G. Patel, the Honorary Secretary of CVM, inaugurated the meet. He also delivered a speech on “The Essential Qualities of a Teacher”, which was quite engrossing.

The first technical session was by Dr. Malini Singh, Associate Professor at Amity University, Noida, on “Smart Teaching Skills”. She in detail explained how as a teacher the academic performance can be improved.

On the second day of the program, 2nd March 2021, Dr. Sarabjit Singh Kawatra, Dy, Dean, HRD Centre, Lovely University, was the expert speaker. He conducted a session on “Communication Strategies for Effective Virtual Teaching”. He involved all the participants to open a Wakelet account and made them use it.

Day three, 3rd march 2021, Dr. Sathyapriya R., A Psychologist, conducted a session on “The Competencies of a Modern Teacher”, wherein she conducted many activities for the participants, involving stress relieving techniques.

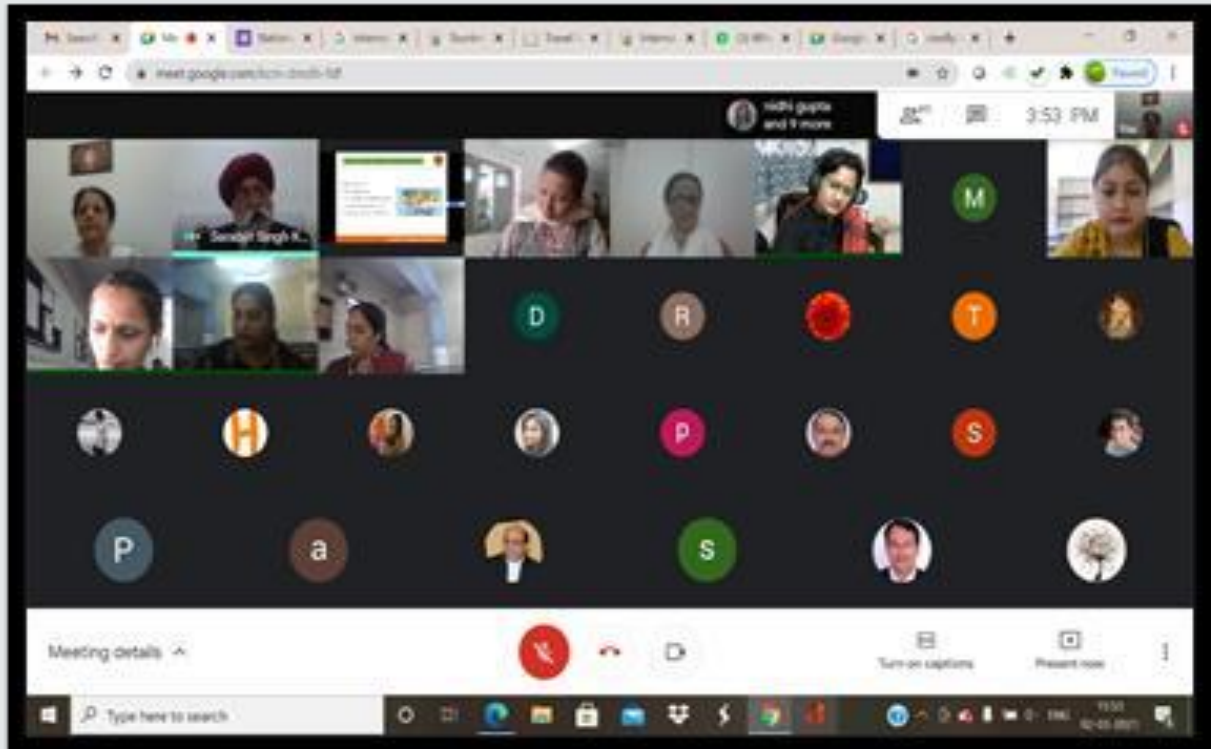

Day four, 4th March 2021, Dr. Sulbha Natraj, Ex. Principal of Waymade College of Education, Vallabh Vidyanagar, Gujarat. She delivered a talk on “Three Major Dimensions of Classroom Instructions”. She had nicely explained how to teach and make the students understand through different mediums.

Day five, 5th March 2021, Mr. Raman Nayar, International Training Fellow, Founder Direct KONNECT, talked about “Immortal Impressions”. The session being very participative, the participants at the end were made to make a list of qualities which they have.

Day six, 6th March 2021, the Valedictory session was chaired by Mr. Ramesh Talati, Hon. Joint Secretary of CVM. He spoke on “How Teachers can Think Out of Box”. He congratulated all the participants for their active involvement throughout the program. Mr. Talati, also congratulated and appreciated the organizing team for organizing this National Level Faculty Development Program. At the end of the valedictory function the participants shared their feedback regarding the FDP and it was quite appreciable by them.

Every day after the session the feedback form was given to the participants to have their feedback for the particular session and it was also counted as their attendance for the day. Based on their attendance the E- Certificates were issued to all the participants. There were 40 participants for the NFDP.

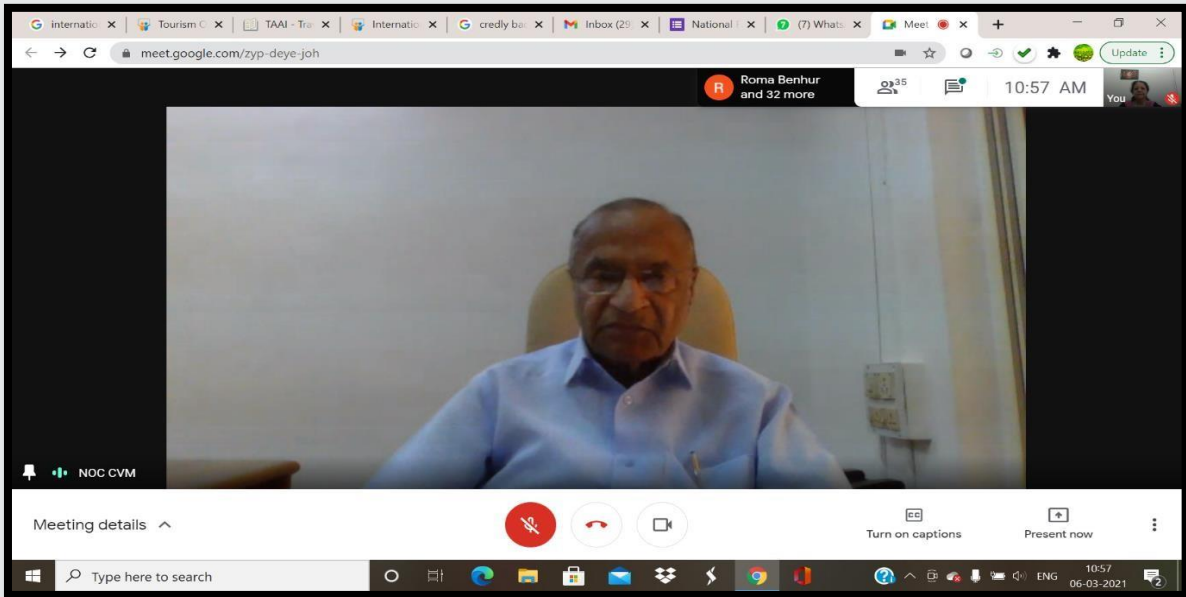

The screenshot shows a Google Meet window with a PowerPoint presentation displayed. The presentation slide is titled "A Fillip To Academic Performance" and contains the following text:

- Grades are a barometer to assess the performance of students. It is through smart classes that students will be thrilled to surprise themselves, their teachers and parents with excellent grades.

Below the text is a cartoon illustration of a student at a desk with a speech bubble that says "How To Improve Academic Performance?". The Meet interface shows "Malini Singh is presenting" and a grid of participants. The system tray at the bottom indicates the time is 15:34 on 01-03-2021.
